Duties and Responsibilities

The Pastor of Worship Arts is responsible for providing spiritual leadership, creative vision and pastoral care to the worship ministry of the church. The Pastor of Worship Arts will:

- o Plan the corporate worship services of GMB in consultation with the Lead Pastor and do so with prayer, conceptual forethought, theological accuracy, and musical appropriateness
- o Ensure that all the musical and technical aspects of the service advance the theme for the day
- o Oversee the spiritual development of the congregation through music, media and the arts in dialogue with the Lead Pastor with the desire to have a congregation of active participants
- o Develop spiritually mature leaders of worship teams through times of training, planning, music selection and personal interaction
- o Create an environment that encourages, nurtures, and supports the development of new and existing worship team members and the musical and artistic gifts God has given them
- o Work in conjunction with the Technicians Ministry Team to train and develop media and sound technicians who have a heart for serving Jesus Christ through their ministry
- o Lead the congregation in worship an average of twice a month
- o Oversee the planning of special services like Easter and Christmas

- o Send out set lists, song keys, etc. for the upcoming service in a timely manner so team members can prepare and meditate on the songs before the Wednesday evening practice
- o Serve as the chairperson of the Worship Arts Ministry Team
- o Communicate with the Decorating Ministry Team (i.e., informing them of what is happening with themes etc. at church)

Additional Responsibilities

- o To prepare a budget in the spring and write an annual report for the annual meeting
- o To carry out such other duties as may be assigned by the Lead Pastor under the advisement of the Board of Directors
- o The Pastor of Worship Arts is accountable to the Lead Pastor and the Staff Relations Committee and ultimately to the membership
